

| BINGO square                     | Questions  |
|----------------------------------|--|
| Spider                           | How many different spider species live in Oregon?  |
| Native plant                     | Why are native plants important for a healthy ecosystem?   |
| California Scrub Jay             | How many different species of birds did you see?   |
| Squirrel                         | Was the squirrel you saw native or non-native?   |
| Cloud shaped like an animal      | What can we tell about the weather by looking at the clouds?   |
| Coniferous tree                  | How many different coniferous trees are there in your neighborhood?Can you identify them all?  |
| White flowering tree             | Click on the "Anatomy of a Tree" link to the Arbor Day Foundation at the bottom left of the page.- What is the cambium cell layer of a tree? |
| First star in the night sky      | Can you identify any of the constellations you see in the night sky?   |
| Ladybug                          | Click on "All about Lady Bugs"What do ladybugs eat?  |
| A very old tree                  | Are there any heritage trees in your neighborhood?Where is the closest heritage tree to your home?   |
| Follow a bug                     | Could you identify the bug you followed?What kind of bug was it?   |
| Plant in a crack                 | Is there "nature" in our city?   |
| FREE SPACE                       | What is the Calapooia Watershed Council?   |
| Diverse plant community          | How many types of plants could you find around your home?  |
| Deciduous tree                   | Click on "Mystery Tree"Can you identify trees # 5-8 on the site?   |
| Earthworms                       | How do earthworms make the soil better (healthier)?  |
| Pink flower                      | Click "Browse Plants" and learn more about a native wildflower. What did you learn?  |
| Window flowerbox or small garden | True or False - You have to have a lot of land to help pollinators.  |
| American crow                    | List one thing that you learned about Crows from the video.  |
| Bee                              | What is the Oregon Bee Project?  |
| Dandelion                        | Can you think of another art project you can do with a dandelion?  |
| Invasive plant                   | What is one native species you could plant if you like the look of ivy but don't want to plant an invasive species?                              |
| Butterfly                        | What is butterfly tagging?   |
| Hummingbird                      | How many hummingbird species occur in Oregon?  |
| birdhouse                        | What is one way birdhouses help wild birds   |